

Personal insolvency: Your stories (BBC News)

Contributed by Webmaster

More info...

The number of people who were declared insolvent in England and Wales hit a record high in the last quarter of 2009 and during the year in full. BBC News website readers have been telling us about their experiences of bankruptcy and debt problems.

MOL to focus on investments at Croatian unit in 2010 (Budapest Business Journal)

Hungarian oil and gas company will focus on investments at its Croatian unit INA and a consolidation of existing upstream and downstream projects this year, CEO Zsolt Herndi said in an interview with Reuters.

Wise County supervisors hope to pay for schools with stimulus funds (Kingsport Times-News)

WISE The Wise County Board of Supervisors on Thursday approved a resolution asking state officials to change how federal stimulus dollars can be applied to school construction projects and voiced opposition to legislation filed in the Virginia General Assembly that could have a negative impact on the coal mining industry.

For whom the merger bell tolls (Timaru Herald)

In the blue corner, the conservative directors of sleepy South Island building society CBS Canterbury. In the red corner, a cabal of Auckland investors with an eye for opportunity.

Student Loan: What are the different types of Student Loan Deferment? (New Kerala)

In today's world of cut throat competition, the cost of education is touching heights. Thus most of the students have to seek loans in order to complete their higher education.